Chinese Canonization (or is it 'Cannon'ization)

It is November, the time when we give thanks and prepare for the winter holiday season. It is also the time when many households also prepare for the coming or present hunting seasons. Please take the following as a story about both.

The Chinese people have a story about a man who asked a hunter to teach him how to shoot birds. The hunter agreed, but his pupil not only failed to shoot a bird in flight, he could not even hit a stationary bird target! Finally as a last resort, the hunter sent the poor man home and told him to fire his gun at a piece of blank cardboard. The hunter said, "Just concentrate on firing at the cardboard. When you have finished, you can draw a bird around each bullet hole."

Sometimes that is how trying to be holy or praying goes. We feel we have missed the mark. Rather than giving up on our efforts at faith, perhaps we need to do something that is within our range of capabilities.

Please, do not evaluate your efforts at prayer and doing "good deeds." The first and cardinal rule of all efforts to live a faithful life is "Thou shalt not judge." This means not only those others you encounter in life, but also your own efforts. Sometimes we think our efforts are inarticulate or somehow not worthy of God's attention. But who are we to know what kind of prayer or effort is cherished or worthy by God?

Just remember that human parents take great delight in the stumbling attempts of an infant learning to walk or babbling inarticulate efforts to talk. If God understands us humans at all, God knows we are not perfect but actually mean well. And we must attempt to live faithfully from where we are. Very few of us are saints in this world.

Like the learner in the Chinese story, let us take aim at faith and love, even if the effort doesn't seem up to the work of a master. We can draw a halo around it later or better yet let God draw a circle of light around our feeble efforts.

So this season of Thanksgiving and hunting let your prayers and good works abound! Just be sure of what you are aiming at and enjoy the efforts as best you can.

Peace,

Bill

Bazaar Ideas: Don't do crafts? How about making a theme basket? Get together with a friend and gather up a variety of related items and put in an appropriate container. Here are some ideas to get you started: Kitchen Up-Grade—measuring spoons and cups, pot holders, towel and dishcloth, and maybe a sugar cookie scented candle all placed in bowl; Game Box—children's board and card games, puzzles; or Home Movie Night—movies or video store gift card, popcorn boxes, popcorn, and a cozy blanket. Then there's Death-by-Chocolate, Fisherman's Delight, Hunter's Necessities, Car Safety Kits, Snow Day Fun, Emergency Gift-Wrapping Set, and Spa-at-Home. Don't forget the birds and pets. Gather up the goodies, put in a container, wrap in cellophane and come join the fun at the Bazaar Saturday, December 5, from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The PONY EXPRESS will ride this month.

As we look forward to the coming year 2016, our stewardship campaign will take the form of a Pony Express relay. The PONY EXPRESS "RUN" will start November 1st. Sometime in the next week or two, a fellow member of the church will deliver you a SPECIAL SADDLEBAG, containing church mail, just like the Pony Express riders of old. Here is all you need do:

1. Lift the saddlebag flap marked 1 & 2. Remove from the pouch stewardship reading material you will find there. Reflect on the message it contains. Then, return this printed material to the same pouch.
2. Next, remove from this pouch the envelope bearing your family name. Inside you will find a pink "ESTIMATE OF GIVING CARD" and a "TIME AND TALENT SHEET". Please fill in the amount of tithe/offering(s) you expect to present to God through the church during 2016. Tear off and keep the stub for your records. Please also fill out a "TIME AND TALENT SHEET" for each member in your family. Extra sheets are in the pouch. Seal both the card and sheet(s) in the named envelope and place the envelope in the pouch on the other side of the saddlebag.
3. Now – and this is extremely important – complete your part of the RUN by quickly relaying the saddlebag of CHURCH MAIL to the next family on the Route List attached to the inside cover of the bag. You may want to phone ahead to make sure they are home. Please make every effort to complete your part of the RUN within 24 hours after receiving the saddlebag... and sooner if possible! Please deliver the saddlebag to an actual person and do not leave it on a doorstep.
4. After you have "delivered the mail," CALL THE TRAIL BOSS" whose name and phone number are at the bottom of the Route List. Tell the Trail Boss that you have completed your part of the RUN. (If your Trail Boss does not hear from you within one day, this person will be phoning you.)
5. These instructions will also be in the saddlebag.

Is it as simple as it sounds? Yes. And it will be highly effective IF you and other members keep the Church Mail moving along the Trail.

Like the early day riders of the Pony Express, the success of our church's relay effort depends on the dedication, commitment, and teamwork of every person. And – as a key member of our team – we are counting on you. Together we can make the work of United Presbyterian Congregational Church fruitful and faithful.

Kim Bro goes over the material for the Pony Express with Anne Wickman, one of the Trail Bosses.

Work of Pastor Nominating Committee Continues

Since the completion of the rather mundane and drawn out organizational activities involved with our denominational process for the calling of a pastor, the activities of the committee are moving forward quickly. The committee is currently reviewing 68 candidate profiles. As part of the review process, committee members have visited web based links provided within the application materials and listened to on-line sermons when available.

All the candidates reviewed by the committee have been referred to it by the Presbytery of Northern Waters. Presbytery's referrals are based upon the criteria and competencies identified by the committee from the survey of the congregation conducted last spring. The pool of candidates stretches from coast to coast.

To date 23 of the 68 candidates have been discussed and ranked by the committee and four have been identified for telephone interviews. A fair number of candidates open to a call from our church have entered the ministry after careers in the secular world. Almost half (47%) percent of the candidates are women.

Although sifting through the profiles of 68 candidates is a bit daunting, the committee is excited to be at actually reviewing candidates for filling the pulpit. As the committee continues to pursue the charge given to it by session and the congregation, we ask for your continued prayers for the successful conclusion of our work.

Member Profile

Getting to Know Bill Handy...

I was born at Cook County Hospital in Chicago IL, March 18, 1951. My folks adopted me at age one month. I grew up in Wisconsin Rapids, WI until we moved to Madison, WI in 1964. We had dogs as pets growing up. A blonde cocker spaniel named Mike and later a miniature red dachshund named Duchess.

Dad was a Medical Doctor, a "GP", in private practice in Wisconsin Rapids from 1947 to 1964. His medical career began at Rush Medical School in Chicago from 1938-41. After enrolling in the U of MN School of Public Health in 1962 and receiving a MPH degree (Master in Public Health), he began work in Madison in 1964 with the WI Division of Public Health, eventually becoming the State Health Officer and Administrator of that Division. Prior to private practice, he served as an MD in the Army Air Corp in England and Germany during WWII from 1942 to 1947.

Mom was trained as a RN in Chicago and was working as a nurse when she and Dad met (he was a med student at the time) in Chicago. They married prior to Dad's military "hitch". During WWII she worked as a nurse stateside. When they moved to Wisconsin Rapids following the war she gave up her nursing career and became a stay at home Mom when my younger sister Sally and I were adopted.

Both Mom and Dad were active in church (Congregational/UCC), community, and organizations. Both were involved in Sally's and my lives as children: schools/PTA, Scouts, encouraging music lessons, sports, etc. They set the pattern that we both follow in our adult lives of service and careers. There was never any doubt in our lives that they were our Mom and Dad and that we were loved and chosen children.

High School was James Madison Memorial High School in Madison, WI. It was a brand new school and I was in the first class to attend all three years, a graduate in 1969. Ninth graders were in a Junior High system at that time. I was a letter winner in football, basketball, and track during High School. My favorite was track as a sprinter (100 yds. through 440 yds.). I was in Latin club and National Honor Society. I was also in band (trombone), choir, and part of the photography team for yearbook and activities.

I went to Carroll College (now Carroll University) in Waukesha WI. Received a B.S. degree in Biology with a Religion minor in 1973. I was originally planning to follow a pre-med path, hence the Biology degree with a Chemistry almost minor (one course short). Carroll College was and still is a liberal arts school, so I received exposure to a broad spectrum of courses and disciplines.

Senior year I decided to apply to Seminaries for a theological education.

I was a member of the Biology academic fraternity, Beta Beta Beta, and a member of a local social Fraternity, Delta Rho Upsilon, eventually serving as President. No sports other than through the frat! I also sang in the Chamber Choir, and was a member of the Carrolleers (an eight member pop-swing-jazz choir group), and played for one year in the jazz band. The choir "toured" Europe for three weeks in January 1971 for a series of concerts in five countries. I also was a lab asst. as a Junior and Senior in the Biology Department. I received an M-Div degree (Master of Divinity) from United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities in New Brighton MN in 1977. This is the "practical" degree that leads to ordination and service as a pastor/minister in a local church.

My first "job" was as a maintenance person/lifeguard at Moon Beach Camp, a church camp of the UCC in St. Germain, WI in 1965. I got paid all of $18.25 per week plus room and board. I returned for three summers at Moon Beach. My first job as a Pastor was as the new church start pastor of McFarland UCC in McFarland, WI. It actually began while I was still in Seminary and Sharon was a Med Student at UW Madison Medical School. We lived in Madison at the time and later in McFarland.

In addition to working at Moon Beach Camp I have also worked in a fast food hamburger restaurant kitchen; as an Orderly/Housekeeping on a surgical floor of a Hospital (second shift); as a lab/lecture asst. for college Biology courses (Comparative Anatomy, Microbiology, Bio 101/2); in a Pizza Hut kitchen; as a part-time school bus driver; and most importantly, as a stay at home Dad when our girls were young.

Sharon and I married in 1973 when I was a college grad going to Seminary and she was finishing her undergrad degree (she finished at the U of MN). She went on to Med School in Madison. In 1979 our first daughter, Amber, was born while Sharon was in Med School and I was at the McFarland UCC. Our second daughter, Beth, was born in 1982 in Lansing MI while Sharon was in her Family Practice Residency. We moved there in 1980. I was stay at home Dad for both Amber and Beth. Amber and husband Derek live in Columbus MS where both have positions on the administration/faculty of the Mississippi University for Women. Amber teaches History (PhD) and is also running an administration program to help professors teach students more effectively. Derek is Archivist for the University and also teaches classes in the same. They have a daughter, Eleanor, age five months; our first grandchild. Beth lives in Halethorpe MD outside of Baltimore. Beth works as Communications and Marketing Director at the Maryland University for Integrative Health, which seeks to promote and train students for fusing Eastern medical practices with Western medicine. Beth recently became engaged (in Paris no less) but she and Jujliya have not set a firm wedding date other than possibly spring in 2017 when both have finished graduate studies.

I think I admire the women in our family the most. All of them, my Mom, Sharon's Mom, Sharon, Amber and Beth (it is too soon to know about Eleanor!) were valedictorians of their High School class. They seem able to integrate life, children, education, careers, family, and all with grace and love. And, of course, they had the smarts and grace to marry us men in the family. As for a cause beyond the church to be devoted to, I would choose the environment.

My most memorable travel experience was the gift my parents gave me for my High School graduation. It was a ten day trip to New York City sponsored by the Wisconsin Council of Churches, led by two pastors from Tomahawk WI who happened to be at Seminary together in New York. It was on that trip that I met a young woman named Sharon Anderson ...

The farthest away from home I have been had been to Europe, most likely Italy specifically Venice. This was the second trip to Europe we took with the girls, the first being to Ireland and Britain.

The funniest (in retrospect) thing that happened to me was our return from our honeymoon. We stopped for gas in the Minocqua area and received the best and most total service ever from the station attendant. This was back in the era when the station attendant actually came out and pumped gas into your car. He checked every belt on the engine, every fluid level, the tire pressure, everything. I chalked it up to the partially removed Just Married soap sign on the back of the car. Next thing I knew a local police car pulled into the other side of the pumps and the officer greeted the attendant, "Hi Fred" and was responded to with "Hi George." I was suddenly spun to the side of the car in the spread, arrest position, the officer with his hand on his weapon. Turns out, there was a "note" in the gas cap saying, "Help. I'm being kidnapped and held against my will. He'll say we are married ...". Also turns out that a "white slave ring" between the Twin Cities and Chicago had be broken up with arrests in the Minocqua area. Thank goodness the marriage was going well. It took me five years to track down the fraternity brother who put the note in the gas cap at the wedding. The greatest effect was that the police called Sharon's folks to confirm our "story", and by the time we returned to Tomahawk later in the day, all her relatives had gathered at her parent's house to hear the episode ...

In my spare time I enjoy reading, TV, and puttering in my workshop at the back of the garage making items in wood. With a new home and a new grandchild there are lots of projects to do and dream.

The place of religion in my life? Sort of like asking whether the Pope is Catholic and does a bear visit the lava-tree. It is my lifelong quest for knowledge, understanding, and mystery.

Favorite food – all of them, except for rutabagas & olives.

A tie for favorite season between Fall and Winter.

Lessons in life: patience, forgiveness, and love.

Children's Christmas Pageant is in the Planning Stages

Hello Everyone!

This year I have agreed to direct this year's Children's Christmas pageant. It will be based off of the story "A Special Place for Santa".

I am working closely with Nancy Dufek on the music and Bill Handy has already offered to play a role if need be. I want it to really be something we can all be proud of, which is why I am asking for everyone's help in making this play memorable for everyone. I am listing the things I know as of now.

1. Costume coordinator - -There will not be much to this since we have most of what we need. You would be mainly responsible for making sure kids had the right ones. As well as making sure they all got put back.
2. Set design coordinator - As far as set design, we need someone who can help kids paint some fake store, wrap presents, possibly the stable
3. Casting agent - -Picks out the cast
4. Snack coordinator - Plans a snack for practices and the day of the play (You can ask parents to bring the snacks.)
5. Stage set-up and take-down crew -Does just that, gets the stage set-up and then put away.

Wow that's a lot. Please let me know where you can help. On another note. I also need to know when it is best for everyone to get together to create sets, make props, and of course practice.

There was mention of practicing on the Wed. when the children have early release. As of now these would be great days to do props and set work. We may not have Nancy on these days to help me go through play practice. Thoughts on when play practices could take place?

Thank you! Jill Zifko
